

Differentiation of Curriculum - Instruction - Assessment is educator's response to learners' needs

↓
guided by general principles of differentiation, such as

respectful
tasks

clarity of learning goals

students & teachers
collaboration in learning

ongoing assessment
and adjustment

flexible grouping
etc.

Educators can differentiate

Content

Process

Product

according to students'

Readiness

Interest

Learning Profile

through a range of instructional and management strategies such as multiple intelligences

jigsaw
taped material
anchor activities
varying organizers
varied texts
varied supplementary materials literature circles
universal design for learning

tiered lessons
tiered centers
tiered products
learning contracts
small-group instruction
group investigation
orbitals
independent study
problem based learning

4-MAT
varied questioning strategies interest centers
interest groups
varied homework
compacting
varied journal prompts
complex instruction
etc.